

Perception, Sensation, and Translation in Early Modern Europe

An International Workshop

Wednesday 1 June 2022

Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

JEWTACTION/Department of Jewish History

Sensing the Truth/Israel Institute of Advanced Studies

Room 301 (3rd floor),
Diller Building #74
Marcus Campus, Be'er Sheva

Workshop Program

Wednesday, 1 June 2022

09:00-09:30 Arrival, Coffee\Tea

09:30-10:00 Welcome

Cana Werman (Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Chair of the Department of Jewish History)

Yaakov Mascetti (IIAS/Bar-Ilan University)

Iris Idelson-Shein (JEWTRACT/Ben-Gurion University of the Negev)

10:00-11:15 Ahuvia Goren (JEWTRACT/Ben-Gurion University of the Negev)

The Telescope, Sight, and Knowledge in 17th Century Italy

(Chair: Amnon Raz-Krakozkin)

11:15-11:45 Coffee Break

11:45-13:00 Elizabeth Swann (IIAS/Durham University)

'O this is sweet!': Tasting Grace in Post-Reformation Religious Poetry

(Chair: Yakov Mascetti)

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:15 Roni Cohen (JEWTRACT/Ben-Gurion University of the Negev)

When Eliyahu Hanavi Took a Bath: Stench and Hygiene in Yiddish Moral Literature

(Chair: Edward Fram)

15:15-15:45 Coffee break

15:45-17:00 Miriam Jacobson (IIAS/University of Georgia)

Tasting Ourselves: Mummy as Pharmakon in Shakespeare's and Wilkins's Pericles

(Chair: Ossnat Sharon-Pinto)

17:00-18:15 Stephanie Shirilan (IIAS/Syracuse University)

Mere Breath? Sensing (and translating) Respiratory Spirit after the Reformation

(Chair: Tamar Nadav)

18:45 Dinner for workshop presenters and chairs